

This award-winning humorous, inspirational gift book is about coping with life, as told by a fretful soft-coated wheaten terrier dog, Casey B. Worrywart, Dogtor of Philosophy, to his human mom, a psychiatrist. Casey's comments are particularly helpful for children and adolescents with self-esteem, anxiety, or shyness challenges. Pairs of pages include Casey's point of view concerning common life situations, quotations from famous people related to the theme, and a color photo of Casey illustrating the situation. This book has received multiple awards, including the Young Voices Foundation Award and Writers Digest International Self-Published Book Award for its humorous and inspirational message.
