

Born to a privileged minority in the early 20th century, Oscar Fairfax's life develops smoothly, from the prestigious St. Augustine boarding school, to Yale University, Paris, Washington, and New York, where he works as a lawyer at his father's firm. But Oscar begins to realize that education is a life-long endeavor and that those traditional values he was raised with are not very compatible with the modern world. This novel showcases some of Auchincloss's favorite themes: New York high society, big law firms, the world of finance, and the weaknesses of those who inhabit those spaces. Nacido en una minoria privilegiada a comienzos del siglo XX, la vida de Oscar Fairfax se desarrolla placidamente, desde St. Augustine, un prestigioso internado, hasta la Universidad de Yale, Paris, Washington y Nueva York, donde terminara ejerciendo como abogado en el despacho de su padre. Pero Oscar termina comprendiendo que la educacion es labor de toda una vida y que los valores tradicionales en los que ha sido educado tienen un dificil encaje en el mundo moderno. Esta novela vuelve sobre los temas favoritos de Auchincloss: la alta sociedad de Nueva York, los grandes despachos de abogados, el mundo del dinero, y las flaquezas de quienes pueblan estos ambientes.
