

Words are so small, and what moms do is so big. Words could never be enough to show how much we appreciate the women who give life, and then give selflessly of their own lives every single day. But this little book tries. With tender, funny, and honest words, and with lovable and laughable images of animal mothers with their young, these pages--in their own special way--say thank you. And if this book could, it would give moms a heartfelt hug.
